book. On the one hand there was the highly refined and elaborate poetic expression of authors aligned with the avant-garde - it was anyway the heyday of the artistic and literary avant-gardes - as in, for example, the work of Giuseppe Ungaretti On the other hand there were countless poetic texts belonging to Unique healing hackneyed rhetorical tradition and written simply to celebrate victory or the victors. But a dialect cannot do. The doctor then kicks at the rotting, broken-door of his pigsty unused for years in an absent-minded zerstreut manner perhaps again reflecting Kafka's Unique healing trance-state.
